

Please do not overturn the NJ Do Not Call List. Since this list has been in effect, I have not received any calls other than during election time. It has cut solicitation calls by 100%. No longer, am I eating dinner, only to be disturbed by some telemarketer asking me to subscribe to something either I already subscribe to or do not want. So please rethink your position and do not overturn this law.